Play and coffee followed by Bible story, singing with instruments and craft. Aimed at 0-4 year olds. Newcomers welcome. For more information on either of these ring Louise on 01653 628064.

Nature Notes. There are two species of blue butterflies within our area, the common blue and the holly blue. The former is described as a widespread grassland resident; the latter an immigrant, now fairly common. I saw a holly blue on Slingsby's village green on 5th May and see them most years. The caterpillar of the holly blue feeds on holly and ivy, hence the name and it is one of the smaller species of the blues. MT 29.5.08 (628620)

From the Rectory.

Dear Friends,

22 July is the Feast of St. Mary Magdalene, and I have decided to celebrate it by holding a Day of Prayer for the Street Parishes. Beginning at Amotherby, I will spend about an hour in each church, finishing at Scackleton (see below for times). There will be periods of silence and some guided prayer topics, also incorporating short services. Mary was someone who loved Jesus very much and wanted to spend time with him: this is an opportunity to offer our devotion to the Lord over and above our normal habits of worship. Please join me if you can at any of the churches, for whatever amount of time you have available.

with my love and prayers, Beryl.

NOTICES

Hovingham Social Committee wish to thank everyone who supported their car boot sale on May 26th. £800 was raised for the senior citizens' Christmas party. Broughton-Malton footpath campaign. Broughton Parish Meeting is launching a fresh fight to see the footpath alongside the B1257 between at least Broughton and Middlecave Farm upgraded to a dual cycleway and footway. This length includes 2 sections considered to be dangerous. A report was presented at a recent Parish Meeting and a letter sent to Richard Finton, Corporate Director of Business & Environmental Services for NYCC. For further information or to offer ideas which may help to achieve the desired goal, contact Gill Woodhead, Clerk to Broughton Parish Meeting: The Holt, Main Street, Broughton, Malton YO17 6QJ.
